

Professional Continuing Education Credit

In order to qualify for continuing education credit, attendees must identify as a professional of the type for which continuing education credit may be sought and follow the guidance of the professional accrediting entity.

- Sworn Law Enforcement Officers can earn credit through Wake Tech Public Safety by:
  - Registering HERE by May 12th. Select Case No. 244558 – Investigating Crimes Against the Elderly. (Scroll to the bottom of the page down to the calendar, then type in the section number or the class title and follow the prompts from there.) Sworn police officers are education credit fee exempt if they register through Wake Tech reservation site and attend these classes.
  - Officers MUST register themselves since this is a virtual class, so their training officer cannot handle registration.
  - Sworn officers who register may attend the 1.5-hour warm-up on 5/17; however, education credit applies to the sessions, May 18-19th.
- Lawyers and Certified Paralegals may be able to earn credit through the NC Conference of District Attorneys, which has offered to apply. There is no cost to attend, but all credit-seeking attorney and certified paralegal attendees will be responsible for completing and submitting the FORM to Erica.M.Quillet@nccourts.org not later than May 21, 2021, and paying their own CLE fees upon billing by the NC State Bar.
- Social Worker - can earn credit through NASW-NC A-325-4282021 for up to 9.5 hours. Attendees are responsible for submitting appropriate paperwork and paying their own CEU fees.
- Substance Abuse Professionals can earn credit through the NC Addictions Specialist Professional Practice Board 21-324-C for up to 11.5 hours (GSB and SS available based on sessions attended). Attendees are responsible for submitting appropriate paperwork and paying their own CEU fees.
- Others consider submitting the Agenda and Speaker List, along with a Certification of Hours Attended to the entity that governs continuing education in your field.
